BUTTERWORTH: A dock worker on board a Singaporean cargo ship here died after a 40-tonne steel cable reel fell on him and a co-worker today.

In the 11am incident at the Inner Wharf here, the two stevedores were believed to be unloading the giant reel when it toppled on top of them.

A co-worker of the deceased, however, cheated death with injuries.

He was sent to the Seberang Jaya Hospital for treatment.
