

MARITIME BULLETIN

Maritime and Crimean Shipping News

Nantes port crane still inoperable, damaged by Russian freighter

Erofey SchkvarkinNews September 5, 2017 6:10 am

- Facebook
- Tweet
- Google+

Post Views: 167

One of the cranes at Grand Port Maritime Nantes is still inoperable after it was hit by Russian freighter MEKHANIK YARTSEV in the evening Aug 28, when the ship was leaving Nantes with pilot on board. Cause of accident yet unknown, the ship collided with wharf and hit the crane while maneuvering. Cost of the crane said to be some 1 mil euro.

General cargo vessel MEKHANIK YARTSEV, IMO 8904367, dwt 2650, built 1990, flag Russia, manager NORTHERN SHIPPING CO, Arkhangelsk.