

A 44-year-old man dies in a work accident in the port of A Coruña

The incident occurred in the ship of TMGA of the pier of Calvo Sotelo

EMILIANO MOUZO A CORUÑA 06/08/2018 23:34 H

A 44-year-old man with the initials C.A.C. has lost his life this afternoon in a work accident on a ship belonging to the shipping company Terminales Marítimos de Galicia (TMGA) located on the Calvo Sotelo dock in the port of A Coruña.

The tragic event occurred at 15.06 hours when several large glass plates fell on him. The Port Authority was the one who alerted the emergency services that came to the site, but could only confirm the death of the worker. Agents of the Civil Guard, National Police and firemen of A Coruña have also moved to the ship.