

Man dies at wharf in Tonga

BY: Loop Pacific
16:58, May 10, 2018

Authorities are investigating the death of a man at the Queen Salote Wharf in Nuku'alofa Wednesday morning.

The victim is said to be a 46 year old who was found dead and trapped in a shipping container.

Kaniva News reports the victim is a member of a popular band of the early 1990's.

Ports Authority Tonga confirmed in a statement that the victim is an employee of Dateline Transam Shipping Ltd.

The company said it offered its condolences to the victim's family.

Photo source Kaniva News file. Caption: Queen Salote Wharf

