patriotism

Rades Port: A container lifter runs over and kills a security agent

25 FEBRUARY

Died on 25 February 2019, a security agent at the commercial port of Rades after being accidentally run over by the container lifter. Aoun was injured at the leg and hand level when he tried to rescue the aid.

The 35-year-old man, a team leader at the port of Rades, was doing his work on the quayside. The incident led to a state of congestion among the security guards who stopped work and stopped the activity at the port now, according to our envoy Nahed al-Jendoubi.

The security guards denounced the difficult work in the port and also denounced the delay in the exhumation of the body from under the crane after all the port workers left after the incident.