

Alien worker crushed by a roll of steel. Put out the warehouse for the port. No documents.

August 7, 2019

Images from INN news agency

On August 6, 2019, the INN news agency reported that volunteer staff helped Received notification before checking the roll of the rolling steel on the alien worker at Warehouse 8-9 within the Port Authority of Thailand.

When examining the scene, the officer found a man lying unconscious and tried to help with a heart pump (CPR), but the man was unconscious and later died.

However, when inquiring about the death of a foreign worker There is no document attached to the age of about 25 years before the police officers coordinate the Bang Kho Laem Police Station with the doctor to check further.

Information from INN news agency