

Crane kills three people in Veracruz

By
Franco Cardel December 13, 2019

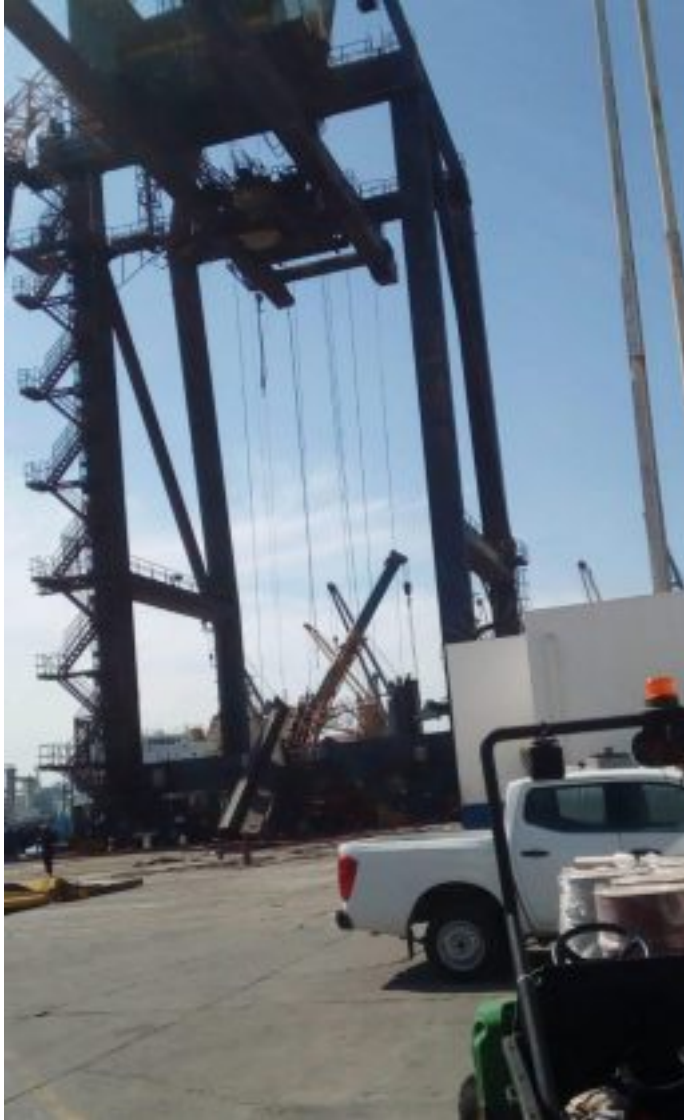

In the workplace, the collapse of a crane or part of its structure was reported, without knowing the details

Inside the Port of Veracruz, there was a fatal accident where at least three people are reported as deceased, the above happened at noon this Friday.

In the place, the fall of a crane or part of the structure was reported, without knowing the details.

In addition, one person is serious and was taken to the Mexican Social Security Institute and six more workers were treated at the scene.

The events were recorded within the facilities of the port, although the Integral Port Administration of Veracruz has not issued any statement.

Although information has been requested, the situation inside or how the accident occurred was not disclosed.

The details were disclosed by the employees and workers of the port area, who mentioned that a worker died at the time of the accident.

Also, two more were missing and their bodies apparently were already also located lifeless.

As if this were not enough, six more had to be attended that resulted in minor crises and injuries, finally one more is serious in the IMSS.

The responsible company is expected to report on the attention that will be given to employees.

There is no official information

Personnel of the State Prosecutor's Office and Expert Services, perform the proceedings inside where the accident was recorded, allegedly the fall of a crane or part of the structure from several meters high, causing the tragedy and at the moment unofficially The death of three people.

It is expected that in the next few hours the corresponding authorities will report what happened and confirm the number of deaths and injuries in these events, as they have not issued a statement in this regard.