

Port worker dies after being run over by a forklift in the Tubarão complex

October 27, 2023 at 8:25 pm

A 66-year-old port worker died after being run over by a forklift at the Tubarão Steel Complex, in Serra, in the early hours of this Friday (27).

The 66-year-old man was found by another employee at the site and none of the other workers were able to say who was handling the vehicle.

.The man was taken to a private hospital in Serra, but he succumbed to his injuries and died around five hours after the accident.